REVIEW PAYSLIP(S):

In our transition to Workday, we've noted that Rhode Island State Income Tax withholding is calculating slightly different from what calculated in the Colleague system. You may notice a variation in your withholding amount anywhere from a few cents to a few dollars (depending on your personal earnings/tax elections.) This is due to how Colleague was configured with rounding. Please be assured that our payroll department has reviewed the Rhode Island tax tables (found here <http://www.tax.ri.gov/>) that the current income tax withholdings on your paycheck from Workday are accurate.
