

Wage Level Descriptions as of January 1, 2022

Job Level	Wage Rate	General Position Description
Level I	$12.25	Entry-level position that involves routine or repetitive work. Little or no experience is required.
Level II	$12.35	Responsibilities require basic knowledge of assigned tasks. Requirements include some previous work experience.
Level III	$12.45	Responsibilities require proficiency in an area of specialized knowledge or skill. Requirements include previous work experience and ability to work with minimal supervision.
Level IV	$12.55	Responsibilities that require a considerable degree of proficiency in an area of specialized knowledge or skill. Requirements include previous work experience, supervisory experience and/or advanced coursework, and the ability to work with minimal supervision.

Rhode Island's minimum wage is being increased in 2022 and again in each of the next three subsequent years:

- 2022: $12.25
- 2023: $13.00
- 2024: $14.00
- 2025: $15.00