CENTER FOR COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

The Center for Community Partnerships invites requests from RISD campus partners and community partners to support public service and civic engagement across campus.

Sponsorship

This funding supports the projects or programs of non-profit civic organizations that recognize RISD students, faculty, staff or alumni and/or strengthen the institution's connection to the local and regional community. Funding requests are handled on a case-by-case basis and are reviewed based on need, relevance, impact, and audience.

Co-sponsorship parameters

Co-sponsorship is primarily provided in the form of promotional (marketing) support. Sponsorships are limited to one-time events. Co-sponsored events are planned in coordination between a sponsoring RISD Department and an external group.
- Directly relate to public service
- Connect to at least one of RISD's Values
- Support and deepen the practice of our areas of impact

Applicants must agree to comply with RISD's branding guidelines and practice. The Center for Community Partnerships does not sponsor partisan political events.

Promotional support

Requests for promotional support should be made at least two weeks before the event. The CCP will help promote events through its website, social media, and relevant newsletters.

Funding support

The CCP does not sponsor individual conference attendance or field trips.

Request process

1. Submit Form.
2. Co-sponsorship requests are reviewed by staff on a rolling basis.
3. The CCP may be in touch to request a short meeting to clarify any aspects of the co-sponsorship.
4. Final decisions are made by relevant CCP staff.

The CCP logo or name must appear on all publicly posted materials – flyers, banners, ads, Etc. The center will provide logo files and instructions.

Ready to make your request?

Meeting and event space

Campus Conference & Events Services (CCES) Department provides more information on room and outdoor spaces for use by our campus and community partners.

Request Space